LOCAL EAGLES TO START A CAMPAIGN FOR NEW MEMBERS

Local Fraternal Organization Starts Drive to Greatly Increase Their Membership By November 11th—Drive Closes With Big Time.

The Maysville Lodge of Eagles announce a big membership campaign which has just started and which will close with the 11th of November at which time a visit from the national organizer is expected and a great banquet and dance will mark the close of the big drive.

Several officers of the local lodge have made arrangements for the big campaign. A special dispensation has been granted reducing the initiation fees from $15 to $5 and under this special dispensation, the local Eagles hope to be able to increase their membership list by scores. The drive proper will be started within a very few days and a desperate effort will be made to bring in many new Eagles.

This order, although fraternal, is renowned for its social life and as a fitting climax to the big drive for membership a big social time is being planned which will be visited by National officials. The social functions of the Eagles are always looked upon as the biggest things in the community and a big time is certain.

More details of the big membership drive will be announced by the local lodge as soon as they are ready to begin their active campaign.

HEAD OF PATRIARCHAL ODDFELLOWSHIP COMING.

Because of several conflicts, it is more than likely that Pisgah Encampment I. O. O. F. will have to postpone their big initiation and social session from Monday, September 27th, to Tuesday, September 28th, as on that date Grand Patriarch Curt Gelbke, of Newport, can visit the local encampment and members of the new Encampment at Germantown will also be here. The local order of Rebekahs will furnish a luncheon for the big meeting.

P. T. A. HOLDS ITS FIRST MEETING.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the Forest Avenue School holds its first meeting this afternoon at the school house. This has always been one of the liveliest associations in the city and it is expected that they will immediately get work underway to accomplish big things for this year.

UTTERBACK GETS TWO YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

One of the Men Charged With Picking Pockets at the Germantown Fair Is Convicted and Sentenced.

Late Thursday a jury in the Mason Circuit Court returned a verdict of guilty against Jesse Utterback, colored, charged with grand larceny and fixed his punishment at confinement of two years in the state penitentiary at Frankfort.

Utterback is one of the three colored men arrested in connection with a colored farmer, of the Mayslick neighborhood, getting his pocket picked while on the fair grounds. The evidence against Utterback was entirely circumstantial but very strong. He and his associates were near the old man who lost his purse as they watched the show ring. One of the men was leaning against the old man and shortly thereafter the old man missed his purse. The three colored men were later seen on the pike counting money and shortly thereafter the missing purse was found along the pike near where the men were standing, emptied.

The three men were arrested in Maysville upon their arrival here in an automobile by Chief Ort and were held to the grand jury by Police Court.

ARRESTS EXPECTED IN DISASTER IN THE FINANCIAL DISTRICT

More Than Twenty-seven Killed and Over 200 Injured in Explosion in Heart of New York's Financial District.

New York, Sept. 17. — Arrests were expected today in the hunt for terrorists who killed and injured scores of persons by exploding an infernal machine in Wall Street Thursday noon.

Police, detectives, Department of Justice agents and private operatives were combing New York for a former employee of the French High Commission who was alleged to have warned the commission of the catastrophe.

They want to question this man, who is said to have an intense hatred of Wall Street and millionaires.

The exact number of dead still was in doubt today. There were 27 bodies at the city morgue. Five more victims died during the night, two at the Voluntary and three at the Broad Street Hospital. Police are working on a revised list of dead.

Injured total more than 200, of whom a number are expected to die.

Some of the most famous detectives in the country were working on the case today, including William Flynn of the Department of Justice, W. J. Burns and Inspector Egan, bomb expert of the New York Police Department.

There were numerous clues. The shoes of the horse which was blown to pieces by the explosion were being used in an effort to locate the stable where it was kept. This horse is supposed to have drawn the wagon containing the explosive.

In addition to the iron slugs made of window weights, which were scattered in all directions and which killed and mangled many persons, a few sections of the explosive container itself are in possession of the police.

One of these, a curved bit of metal, was found in the body of a boy who was killed.

It was the belief of investigators today that the infernal machine was loaded with T. N. T., trinitrotoluol, as witnesses described a cloud of smoke, first white then turning blue, and said they noticed the peculiar odor of T. N. T. immediately after the blast.

The theory today was that the infernal machine probably was made in a den on the East-side not far from the corner of Broad and Wall streets, and conveyed in a junk wagon, many of which are kept in that locality.

LOCAL POLICE MUST STUDY LAW 30 MINUTES A DAY

New Orders Require Patrolmen To Become Acquainted With City Ordinances and State Statutes.

As one of the first moves to increase the efficiency of the Maysville police department, Chief of Police Harry A. Ort today issued an order that each member of the department should spend at least thirty minutes each day in the future in studying the City Ordinances and State Statutes.

Chief Ort is very anxious to increase the efficiency of the local department and he believes that the first step is for them to become acquainted with the city and state laws against general disorders. There are many ordinances in the city ordinance books that the policemen know nothing about and it is likely that there are members of City Council, who themselves do not know what laws are in force in the city.

This new order means that the policemen must go to school every day for thirty minutes and the Chief thinks that if the police become better acquainted with the city laws they will be much more efficient and there may be some ordinance that should be repealed. The enforcement of such laws will bring their repeal quicker than anything else.

CANCELLING OF SHOW IS GREAT DISAPPOINTMENT.

The cancelling of the big musical comedy "Oh, By Jingo," which was to have been the attraction at the Washington theater Saturday evening is quite a disappointment to the show going people of this section as this comedy is heralded as one of the best on the road. The cancellation was made necessary when it was found that connections from this city to Louisville could not be made in time to put the company in Louisville for a Sunday afternoon performance.

MAYSVILLE MAN IN NEW YORK IS NOT IN EXPLOSION.

Mr. Phillips Barbour, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Barbour, of Market street, and whose office is within four doors of Wall street near where the great explosion occurred Thursday, immediately wired his parents here informing them that he was not in the Wall street district at the time of the big explosion and was not injured.

MAYSVILLE SOON TO HAVE FINE NEW WHARF BOAT.

The new wharfbat which was built for Maysville and which is now being used at Portsmouth will be moved here just as soon as the Portsmouth boat is put into commission.

PLAN TO TRY EDDINS ON SEPTEMBER 29.

Lawyers are now making preparations to begin the trial of Henry Eddins, indicted on a charge of murdering Ben Schumaker, night watchman at the Maysville Cotton Mills. Eddins' trial has been set for Wednesday, September 29th and will probably consume several days. Much interest is expected to be shown in the second trial of this case.

SYSTEMATIC EDUCATION ON THE TRAFFIC LAW BEING PLANNED

Chief Ort Begins Careful System and Will Enforce Strictly Traffic Laws in Maysville—No Excuses Can Be Offered.

Chief of Police Harry A. Ort, a recognized expert in police department system, has worked out a carefully laid plan for successful enforcement of the traffic laws of the city, which have been badly disregarded by motorists since the adoption of those laws by City Council.

Although there was the usual publication of the traffic ordinance as was required by law and although the law was published in booklet form and circulated widely among automobile owners and drivers, there seems to be a lack of knowledge of the ordinance throughout the city and this causes many complications. There has been a spasmodic enforcement of the law since its adoption but this lack of knowledge of the law has failed to bring about results.

In order that the law may become thoroughly known by drivers and owners of machines, Chief Ort has worked out a perfect system and every violator of any section of the law will be notified by patrolmen. They will also be informed as to what section of the ordinance they have violated and a complete record of these first violations will be kept for the reference of the department. Second offenses will not be excused and the police department will ask the court for heavy cooperation in regulating traffic in Maysville.

If the system Chief Ort has worked out is such careful detail is worked out by the patrolmen carefully Maysville will soon become the best regulated city in the country as to traffic and nothing is needed more in our city at the present time than a regulation of traffic. If Chief Ort's system is carefully followed and he intends to insist on a careful following of it, he will have the gratitude of not only the pedestrians but as soon as the system is working smoothly, the drivers and owners of machines will also be grateful to him for the system and its strict enforcement.

CAPT. HIBLER BACK ON OLD RUN.

SUIT BROUGHT IN ATTEMPT TO BREAK THE SPHAR WILL

Blood Relatives of the Late A. C. Sphar Bring Suit To Break Will Probated A Few Days Ago—Charge Undue Influence.

In the Mason Circuit Court late this afternoon suit was filed by the blood relatives of the late A. C. Sphar, bequeathed by his brother, Mr. Jacob Sphar, against the beneficiaries of the will probated this week, asking the court to set the paper aside charging that it is not the true last will and testament of the deceased.

Jacob Sphar and Julia Sphar, Robert A. Sphar and Minnie B. Sphar, Chester O. Sphar, Dan E. Fuller and Mary Fuller, May Sphar Eakin and W. R. Eakin, Alice E. Sphar and Dan S. Fuller and others bring the suit and all mentioned in the paper as probated are made defendants.

In their petition they set out and charge that the paper as probated in the Mason County Court is not the true last will of the late A. C. Sphar charging that he was not of sound mind and memory at the time it is dated. They say he was mentally incapable of making a will and also charge there was undue influence brought to bear upon him.

Slattery & Rees represent the heirs bringing the suit.

DR. WINNES CLEARED BY GRAND JURY OF TEACHER'S MURDER

Court Adjourned Yesterday Until Monday After Giving Veterinary Field Agent a Clean Bill.

Harlan, Ky., Sept. 16. — The Harlan county grand jury, which for several days has been investigating the murder and assault of Miss Laura Emma Parsons, Pine Mountain Settlement school teacher, dismissed a warrant against Dr. H. C. Winnes, State veterinarian, holding that evidence had not been found sufficient to base an indictment against anyone. The court adjourned until Monday.

Teachers of the school, who have employed detectives to work on the case, said tonight that they had additional evidence to submit to the body when it reconvenes.

The teachers said that the detectives had failed to find any clues that would strengthen a case against any of the negro convicts that have been questioned three times by the detectives today.

FORGER GETS TWO YEARS IN STATE PENITENTIARY

Withrow Gets Two Years for Forgery—Coffy Gets $50 Fine on Shooting—Charge—Adjourns Until Thursday.

After winding up small criminal cases scheduled for trial this term, the Mason Circuit Court adjourned this morning to meet again on next Tuesday morning to take up the regular calendar.

Two criminal cases were disposed of this morning. H. M. Withrow, of Lewis county, charged with forgery, entered a plea of guilty to the charge and a jury was but a short time in fixing his punishment at two years confinement in the state penitentiary. Withrow, it will be remembered, endeavored to cash a check at Galanty & Alper's clothing store having forged the name of Alva Forman to the paper.

John Coffy, Germantown negro, entered a plea of guilty to a charge of shooting and wounding and was fined $50 and costs.

The bond of George Hambrick, one of the three negroes charged with pocket picking at the Germantown Fair, was forfeited, he having failed to put in his appearance in court. Hambrick's bond was for $300.

A SHAMELESS PROCEEDING.

The Administration recently displayed the brand of its Americanism. Secretary Colby, speaking to a delegation of American citizens of Polish extraction made a shameful appeal to racial prejudice with a view to securing for Candidate Cox the Polish vote in November.

"We can not go to the relief even of Poland," said he to the delegation, "provided the view prevails in this country that we have no concern with anything beyond our national borders. * * * I call your attention to the fact that the attitude of this government can only be the attitude of its people, and you, as American citizens, have the power to determine the trend and the weight of American public opinion. * * * In the final analysis it is public opinion. It is the less remote view, it is your duly elected members of Congress. In a very important sense, it is the political party with which you may be affiliated."

In effect, what Secretary Colby told the Polish delegation was: "Never mind American problems; pay no attention to America's desire to keep out of European broils; forget that you should be Americans in every sense of the word; organize as a race concerned solely with the independence of your native land and with securing aid, financial certainty, soldiers if necessary, from the United States and a Democratic administration to carry on your struggle. Vote the Democratic ticket and we will go to the limit for you in Europe." Was ever a more brazen, crooked, un-American attempt made to win votes? The Democratic politicians, having first-hand access to the Census reports of 1920, not yet classified for public information, have undoubtedly been making a study of the Polish distribution throughout the country, and are appealing to their interest in the independence of their mother country to vote the Cox-Roosevelt ticket. With a recklessness beyond the power of words to condemn they are promising everything under the sun—money of the American taxpayers by direct promise, soldiers by inference—if the Poles will pool their votes in favor of the Democratic party.

It is conservatively estimated that there are 4,000,000 inhabitants of Polish blood in this country, to say nothing of those in sympathy with Polish independence. These are the votes Wilson Internationalism seeks to help place in the White House for four more years a mind "absolutely at one" with Mr. Wilson. Mr. Cox, if elected could choose whether to take up the Polish struggle and force a draft law through Congress, if the necessity for such an expedient arose; or he could repudiate the Administration's pre-election promises to the Poles. In this connection the Poles are reminded that the Democrats have double-crossed the Irish, the Italians, and the Germans, having made pre-election promises to those three racial groups which were canceled after election was secured.

Once public attention is centered on such base designs the condemnation of the Administration responsible becomes all but universal. No true American, whatever may be his racial origin, is going to see the United States made the political football of European racial antagonisms. The party guilty of such hypocrisy is in straits too desperate to count the cost. It sees only the possibility of Polish votes. But if America is not rid of the hypocrites who stoop to such practices by 1921, there will be no strictly American destinies to control by 1925. Wilsonian Internationalism and racial appeal will have resolved this country into its tribal elements.

FRESH BERRIES!
IN MIDWINTER
SOON, U. S. SAYS

Agriculture Department Experts Find
Freezing Process Which Beats
Canning, They Observe.

Washington, Sept. 8. — Fresh berries and cherries in midwinter are possible, the experts of the Department of Agriculture announce after extensive experiments. Successful methods of storing fruits and berries in frozen condition have been demonstrated, and, government experts say, these should be more fully utilized in relieving the market of surplus receipts of highly perishable fruits while in sound, edible condition. They declare that preservation by freezing is cheaper than canning, especially when tin containers are costly, as at present, and an important industry of steady development is looked for in this line. Fruit held at proper temperatures, the experts say, has a more natural flavor than when canned or dried, and is fully as satisfactory as fresh fruit, is superior to canned and dried fruit in making ice-creams and sherbets and for cooking in the form of pies, preserves, jellies and other desserts and confections.

Strawberries, red and black raspberries, blackberries, logan berries, blueberries, gooseberries, currants and sour cherries have been found to keep successfully after being frozen. Berries can be frozen in the crates in which marketed in temperature from ten degrees Fahrenheit to zero and below, and withdrawn from cold storage when wanted. The fruits become waterlogged when taken out and collapse, and therefore must be used immediately. Government experts say, however, that they retain their natural flavor and in every way are comparable to the best fresh products.

Apparently a safe estimate, the statement says, is that the crop has suffered a 25 per cent. reduction due to the rust blight. The disease has appeared mainly where the soil was not the best. Mr. W. T. Earls of Front street is visiting his son in Rowan county, Ky.

Miss Hattie Gray has gone to Milledale, where she will teach in one of the schools of that city.

Rev. and Mrs. Baxter are visiting relatives in Clark county, Kentucky, this week.

Miss Watson and Miss Armour, who have been visiting their aunt, Mrs. Hulda Jones, have returned to their homes in Augusta.

Mr. Jesse Applegate, of Tollesboro, was here on special business the first of the week.

Misses Verna and Minnie Boggs left the first of the week for Berea, Ky., to enter the Normal department of Berea College. After another nine months course in that school they expect to take up teaching next year.

Rev. Divert, who has been serving as pastor of the local M. E. church the past two years, was transferred by conference to another field, and Rev. Perry sent to take his place in this field. Rev. Perry will preach here every Sunday evening, and will supply his country churches, Braidville, Fitches Chapel, and Ebenezer, Sunday mornings and afternoons.

In our boyhood happy days, when we were in the big brick schoolhouse studying the history of our forefather pilgrims, we heard of the curfew bell that nightly warned the kiddies of those early days that it was time to return from the streets and get ready for their beds of repose. Little then did we ever expect to hear a curfew bell. But it is a saying that "history repeats itself," and now we can say that we have heard a curfew bell with our own ears. Yes, Aberdeen has one, a real, suretough curfew, and for the past two weeks at about 8:30 p. m. its peal may be heard from the top of the school house, and reverberating from one end of our little city to the other; possibly the sound-waves may float across the broad river and reach as far as Maysville. We are now wondering if our city authorities, still following the example of our Puritan forefathers, will inaugurate a compulsory church attendance, for that is one thing noticeable about Aberdeens, their conspicuous absence from church services.

Mr. Joe Catron will preach at the Episcopal Baptist church next Sunday. Mr. Catron, who is just entering the ministry, expects to continue literary studies at Berea, and later take a theological course in the Baptist Seminary in Louisville. Mr. Catron is a fine young man and this community may justly feel proud of him as one of its citizens called to a grand work. We feel sure that Mr. Catron will make quite a success as a minister of the Gospel, for he is already a fluent talker and an exceptional character.

he preaching service at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The only service in town at that time was so poorly attended that the pastor decided to discontinue it and made a short talk to the Sunday school instead.

Nominee's Former Pastor Still Boosting Man Who Will Be Leader and Not Dictator.

FINDS IN SENATOR NO TRACE OF RADICALISM

Declares Justice, Kindness and Mercy Stand Out as Foremost Characteristics of Republican Candidate.

Included among the Minnesota Republicans working faithfully and industriously in behalf of Senator Harding, is Rev. D. B. Martin, of Winnebago, Minn., formerly pastor of the Marion, Ohio, Baptist Church and Senator Harding's pastor. The other day Rev. Martin was asked just why he is so enthusiastic about Senator Harding, and this is what he said:

"It is a peculiar pleasure for me to continue the work which I began twenty-five years ago. It was my privilege to stand on the side lines and boost for Senator Harding when he received his first nomination for public office. When he was a candidate for the senate I was visiting in Ohio and had the pleasure of boosting for him. It is, therefore, a peculiar pleasure to join with this bunch of Minnesota boosters in seeking to put Senator Harding over, in the greatest gift within the power of the people. Being a clergyman, I have been constantly asked by my friends at the college commencement in Michigan, in Chicago and in Minnesota why I am such a persistent booster for Mr. Harding, and I have been asked to state in this presence my reasons for doing so. These are three:

"The first reason is because I believe that there is focused in him the best traditions, ideals and purposes of the great Republican party and so peculiarly fit him to be their leader in this great crisis of the nation's life. I use the word 'leader' advisedly, for it is leadership that we are needing and not arbitrary, dictatorial, autocratic rule. We have had enough of that. If a boss is desired there would be no need for making any change, for the boss that we have is the bossiest.

"The third reason is because I find in him no trace of radicalism. To me radicalism is the greatest danger that we have to face. Our interests are too diverse to admit of anything of that character. We have our agricultural group with its interests. We have our financial interests. We have that other great group known as the public, that has always been made the 'goat,' with its interests. All of these are of vital interest to the common weal and I believe that Senator Harding is broad enough and sympathetic enough so that the interests of each will be blended in the common interest of all, and all will be perfectly safe under his leadership."

"READ THAT, MR. COX" AND MR. COX DID READ.

A little incident connected with candidate Cox's recent campaign visit to New York indicates that the Democratic nominee is striving to forget certain indiscreet editorials which appeared in his newspaper, the Dayton News, before the owner of the paper aspired to the Presidency.

As the Democratic nominee was leaving the Hotel Commodore after luncheon a commercial traveler forced his way through the throng of curious spectators and thrust into Mr. Cox's hand an editorial clipping which proved to be his denunciation of the United States. "Read that, Mr. Cox," commanded the traveling man. The Democratic candidate unfolded the tiny column of newspaper matter, glanced at the heading, scanned the first paragraph, flashed scarlet to the ears and crumpling the offensive and offending editorial in his fist mumbled something which none of those near him at the time would repeat and hurried to his waiting automobile.

In 1904 one of Mr. Cox's newspapers denounced the army of traveling salesmen as "unmilitated hordes." What would he say now that he desires their votes?—South Bend (Ind.) Tribune.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

SEPTEMBER 19, 1920.

Topic: "Alcohol; False Claims and True Charges."—Proverbs 23:19-21, 29:35.

REV. J. J. DICKEY.

Alcohol has been weighed in the balance and found wanting. Its use as a beverage has been condemned in all ages and in all lands. Many false claims have been made for it, but its advocates have abandoned almost all of them.

According to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, President of the United States Pharmacopoeial Convention at St. Louis, January 30, 1920, Whisky and brandy have been eliminated as medicines. He said: "No mention of alcoholic liquors as medicines will be made in the next issue of the American Pharmacopoeia, which is prepared every ten years."

Big business has tabooed it. Drinking men are no longer employed by many of the largest corporations of the land. As a revenue producer it has been proven that it is a liability rather than an asset. As a crime-producer it has no competitor. The San Francisco Examiner says, January 18, 1920: "The jail population of Massachusetts has diminished so rapidly under prohibition that county jails in Lowell, Taunton, Newburyport and Fitchburg have been ordered closed. Thirty-five county institutions, which have accommodations for 6,400 prisoners, housed a daily average of only 2,500 during the last month."

Cincinnati has closed her work house, for lack of prisoners to work. Hundreds of other cities have done the same.

No law that was ever placed upon the statute books has brought such benign results as prohibition laws. The nineteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States is a veritable Magna Charter to the drinking world.

A Declaration of Independence to the enslaved drunkards of America. And what shall we say of the deliverance it brought to the mothers of America who no longer weep over their boys "Down in the Licensed Saloon." If all of this has been accomplished in so short a time, what may we hope for when the old toppers have all passed away and the law is fully enforced? When men will no longer jest about "the kick" and talk of drunken revels as "a good time"? When the halo has disappeared from drunkenness, and indulgence in alcoholic drinks has become a disgrace?

In the face of the beneficent effects of prohibition already realized, men should be ashamed to advocate the return of the saloon, or the restoration of light wines and 3.75 per cent. beer. Why want to enslave a people who have gained their liberty? Better to restore African slavery and return to British rule! Let every friend of humanity discourage every effort to revive, in any way, the reign of alcohol in this fair land. He who advocates it is an enemy of his country though he may not realize it, or so intend to be. Patriotism demands it, humanity demands it, Christianity demands that the beverage use of alcohol should be forever abolished.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Yazell, of Fisher, Ill., have returned home after a visit with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Yazell. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Headley Yazell.

SYSTEM OF CURING
BURLEY TOBACCO IS BEING WORKED OUT

Experts at Experiment Station Are Giving Their Attention to Working Out a System for Curing Weed Artificially.

In the annual report of the Kentucky Experiment Station which is just off the press, Director Thomas Cooper writes: "For several years past the Experiment Station has been attempting to determine a method of curing burley tobacco by artificial heat. Enough work has been completed to show that as high grade of leaf can be obtained by fire-curing at a relatively low temperature as by air curing, thus eliminating completely the danger of house burning."

With the increasing importance of the burley tobacco industry, it is probable that the use of artificial heat may be advantageously resorted to more generally. This would hold true especially in seasons where climatic conditions are unfavorable for curing.

During the past year, curing experiments were conducted with dark tobacco as grown in Western Kentucky. Export tobacco of this region are open-fire-cured giving them a strong flavor of creosote. The growing scarcity of wood in many regions is making the curing process very expensive and in time it will be almost impossible to secure the necessary supplies of wood at a reasonable figure. The experiments at the Experiment Station were designed to determine the possibility of accomplishing results equivalent to those obtained by open wood firing by a combination of fire-curing and smoking with wood smoke. The heat in fire-curing is furnished by any kind of fuel. In appearance the tobacco cured by this process is equal to open-fire-cured in all respects but does not have quite so pronounced an odor of smoke. This experiment is to be continued. It is not known how the buyers will value the leaf cured in this way.
